- (b) The candidate proposed does not possess a recognised qualification as included in schedule II, III, IV of the IMCC Act, 1970.
- (c) That there has been any failure to comply with the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder relating elections to the Parishad.
- (d) That the signature of the candidate or his proposer or his seconder is not genuine or has been obtained by fraud, coercion or under influence.
- (e) That the candidate is disqualified or is not qualified under the Act or these rules for election.

(9) Completion of Scrutiny

- (a) The scrutiny shall be completed on the day appointed in this behalf and no adjournment of scrutiny shall be allowed.
- (b) The Returning Officer, shall, on the same day, endorse on each nomination paper, his decision as to whether the nomination paper has been accepted or rejected and in case the nomination paper is rejected, shall record, the reason for such rejection.

(10) Withdrawal of candidature

Any candidate may withdraw his candidature within three days of completion of scrutiny of nomination papers by a notice in writing signed by him and delivered by post or hand to the Returning Officer.

(11) List of Contesting Candidates

On completion of the scrutiny of the nominations and after the expiry of the period within which a candidate may withdraw his candidature under rule 4(a), the Returning Officer shall forthwith under his signature publish on the notice board at the office of the Parishad a list of contesting candidates.

(12) Procedure of Uncontested Election

After the publication of list of contesting candidates, if the number of contesting candidates does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled in, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare such candidates to be duly elected to fill such vacancies without any votes being taken and report the names of such candidates to the government

(13) Contested Election

- (a) When there are more contesting candidates than the existing vacancies, the voting shall be by means of postal ballot, or by personal voting within the stipulated time and date.
- (b) The Returning Officer shall forthwith seek publication of the names and address of the contesting candidates in the Official Gazette and the same shall be displayed on the notice board in the office of the Parishad.

(14) Printing of Ballot Papers

The Returning Officer shall arrange for the printing of ballot papers in Form 12 with the names of the contesting candidates entered in alphabetical order.

(15) Despatch of Ballot Papers to Electors

- (a) Twenty one days before the date fixed for the receipt of ballot paper under rule 4(4), the Returning Officer shall despatch to every elector through Registered Post:
 - * One ballot paper in Form 12 duly signed by him.
 - * A smaller blank cover with the words "Ballot Paper" printed thereon; and
 - * A large cover addressed to himself in Form—13.
- (b) The Returning Officer shall mark in one copy of the electoral roll against the name of every elector to whom a ballot paper and covers have been despatched. The marked copy of the electoral roll and the counterfoils of the ballot papers sent shall be sealed in a packet immediately after the date fixed for receipt of ballot papers under rule 4(4).

(16) Issue of Duplicate Ballot Paper

If any elector has not received his ballot paper and covers or has inadvertently spoilt the ballot paper or lost it, then he may request the Returning Officer at least seven days before the date fixed for receipt of ballot papers under rule 4(4), a declaration to that effect signed by himself and accompanied by spoilt papers, if any, and requesting the Returning Officer to send him duplicate papers in place of those not received, spoilt or lost. When duplicate papers are issued, a record thereof shall be kept by the Returning Officer and a mark "Duplicate" made on the larger cover and on the ballot paper issued. The original ballot issued will be cancelled and will not be taken for counting even on receipt.

(17) Delivery of Ballot Paper to Elector in Person

Any elector whose ballot paper is returned undelivered may apply to the Returning Officer in person for such ballot paper before the date fixed for receipt of ballot papers under Rule 5(4) and take delivery of the ballot paper after satisfying the Returning Officer of his identity and giving a receipt.

(18) Recording of Votes by Electors

- (a) On receipt of the ballot paper, an elector shall record his votes by putting tick mark (X) in column (3) of the ballot paper against the names of candidates to whom he wishes to give his vote. The elector shall have as many votes, as there are vacancies and can give only one vote to each candidate. The elector shall not reveal his identity on the ballot paper by putting his signature or by any other means.
- (b) After recording his vote, the elector shall put the ballot paper in the smaller cover, close it and put it in the larger cover. The elector shall then close the larger cover and write his full name and sign at the places marked on the larger cover and shall then send the same by post or otherwise, so as to reach the Returning Officer on or before the date and the hour appointed under rule 4(4) for receipt of ballot papers.
- (c) Any elector who is under any disability which incapacitates him from recording his vote in the above manner may take the assistance of a Gazetted Officer or a Magistrate in recording his votes. Such officer shall, in such case, record on the back of the larger cover a certificate in the following manner, namely:

"I.....(Name of the Officer) hereby certify that.....(name of the elector) being incapable of recording his votes due to..... (cause of incapacity) requested me to record his votes and I have recorded his votes according to his desire and in his presence"

(Signature.....)

Seal of his Office or Rubber Stamp of his Designation

(19) Custody of Ballot Papers

All covers containing ballot papers shall on receipt be kept in a sealed box by the Returning Officer after noting the date and time of receipt on each cover shall not be opened till the time and date of counting. Any cover received after the date and time fixed for receipt of ballot papers under rule 5(4) shall be kept in a safe custody and shall not be opened.

(20) Scrutiny and Counting of Votes

- (a) The scrutiny and counting of votes shall be undertaken by the Returning Officer at the time, day and place appointed under rule 4(4).
- (b) The candidate himself and not more than one representative, duly authorised by him, may remain present at the time of counting of votes.
- (c) The whole ballot paper shall be treated as invalid—
 - (i) If the elector has failed to write his full name and make his signature on the larger cover in which the smaller cover containing the ballot paper is kept.
 - (ii) If the mark (X) is placed opposite the names of more candidates than the number of seats to be filled, or if more votes are given than he is entitled to under rule 4(18)(a).
 - (iii) If the elector has put his signature on the ballot paper and has made any other mark thereon which may reveal his identity.
 - (iv) If the Returning Officer receives more than one ballot paper from the one smaller cover or more than one smaller cover in any larger cover, all such ballot papers shall be treated as invalid.
 - (v) The original ballot paper where the duplicate ballot paper has been issued.
 - (vi) If the mark (X) is so placed as to make it doubtful to whom the candidate the elector has given his votes; the vote shall be deemed to be invalid.

(21) Declaration of Result of Election

- (a) When the counting of votes is completed, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare the candidate to whom the largest numbers of votes have been given, to be elected. If there is an equal number of votes in favour of each of two or more candidates for one vacancy, the selection shall be determined by the Returning Officer by draw of lots.
- (b) The Returning Officer shall also issue to each successful candidate a certificate of his having been elected to the Parishad and report to the government the date of declaration of the election, and the result thereof.
- (c) After the result of the election has been declared by him, the Returning Officer shall seal the ballot papers and all other documents relating to the election and shall retain the same with himself in safe custody for a period of six months and thereafter cause them to be destroyed unless otherwise required by the courts of law.

(22) Filling of Casual Vacancy

These vacancies will be filled up as per provisions under section 6 of the Act.

(23) (i) Election of President and Vice-President

(b) The complainant may, on application in writing, obtain copies of any explanation, statement or other documents put forth in his defence by the registered practitioner.

(6) Procedure of Inquiry

(a) Where the complainant appears personally or through an Advocate, the following procedure shall be followed, namely :—

(i) The Registrar will read to the Disciplinary Committee the notice of inquiry addressed to the registered practitioners;

(ii) The complainant will then be invited to state his case by himself and to produce his evidence in support of it and at the conclusion of the evidence of the complainant, if not substantiated by satisfactory proofs, his case will be closed;

(iii) The registered practitioner will then be invited to state his case by himself and to produce his evidence in support of his case. He may address the Disciplinary Committee either before or at the conclusion of his evidence but only once;

- (iv) At the conclusion of the practitioner's case, the Disciplinary Committee shall, if the practitioner has produced evidence, hear the complainant in reply on the case generally, but will bear no further evidence except in any special case in which the Committee may think it right to receive such further evidence. If the practitioner produces no evidence, the complainant will not be heard in reply except by special leave of the Committee.
- (v) Where a witness is produced by any party before the Disciplinary Committee, he/she will be first examined by the party producing him/her, and be cross examined by the opposite party and then re-examined.
- (vi) The Chairman and the Members of the Disciplinary Committee may put questions to the complainant and registered practitioner including any of their witnesses.

(b) When there is no complainant or no complainant appears, the following procedures shall be followed, namely :—

- (i) The Registrar shall read to the Disciplinary Committee the notice of inquiry addressed to the practitioner, and will state the facts of the case and produce before the Disciplinary Committee the evidence by which it is supported in the presence of the registered medical practitioner or his Advocate.
- (ii) The practitioner shall then be invited to state his case by himself and to produce his evidence in support of it. He may address the Disciplinary Committee either before or at the conclusion of his evidence, but only once.

(7) Record of Proceedings at Inquiries

The Chairman shall keep a record of proceedings of the inquiry held under these rules including the evidence of each witness, through the Registrar and subscribe his signature on the record each day of the proceedings.

(8) Power of the Committee to give further opportunity to practitioner to make statement

Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, after completion of the inquiry, the registered practitioner shall be given a further opportunity of making any oral or written statement. Copies of such evidence as are required by the registered practitioner for making such statement shall be supplied to him.

(9) Decision of Committee and Implementation

As soon as the hearing of the case is over and the registered practitioner has made his oral or written statement, if any, the Disciplinary Committee shall deliberate thereon in private and at the conclusion of the deliberation, the Chairman shall forward the decision of the Disciplinary Committee to the Parishad for ratification and shall pronounce its decision at the earliest. If it is not possible to declare the decision immediately, then at any time thereafter, the Chairman shall direct the Registrar to inform the parties of the decision of the Parishad by a registered letter and to implement the decision, but not later than fifteen days from the date of such direction.

8. APPEALS

(1) Every appeal by a person aggrieved by any decision of the Disciplinary Committee shall be addressed to the President and shall state the grounds for the appeal and shall be accompanied by all relevant documents in original which shall be returned alongwith the decision communicated under the rules.
